BIJOU IS SHOWING A KALEM CLASSIC

Charles Chaplin is also on the Screen in One of His Sidesplitters.

Alice Joyce and Guy Coombs are the headliners today on the Bijou screen. "The Face of a Madonna" is the title of this three-part Kalem classic. Charles Chaplin is on today in "By the Sea," and one can put it under his hat that this is a screen present. "His Phantom Sweetheart" is a program hard to equal.

Tuesday Harry Morey and Naoma Talmadge will present "A Pillar of Flame," a three-part Broadway Star production and an Ade table. "A Night Given Over to Revelry."

Many who had supposed the famous Gaby to be only a dancer will be astounded by her wonderfully versatile performance on the screen. She will prove beyond the slightest doubt the possession of dramatic ability.

In the course of the feature Mlle. Deslys, supported by her dancing partner, Harry Pifer, will present the dances which have won such sensational triumphs on the stage.

The subject offers many striking effects, with little intimate touches of the theatre, the dressing rooms, the stage, which by the way, is one of the most unusual settings ever conceived for the screen, and many other novel arrangements. A carefully chosen cast of distinguished stage performers assist the dancing star in making "Her Triumph" doubly appropriate.

Tomorrow "The Cowboy and the Lady," in which B. A. Rolfe is starring S. Miller Kent, formerly the star of "Raffles," will reach local screen-dom. "The Cowboy and the Lady" was staged in the exact locale of the play, as written by Clyde Fitch, and when seen here will be embellished over the stage by the additional scenes and numberless climaxes.

"The Cowboy and the Lady" is in five parts and contains hundreds of scenes. It requires a cast of two hundred players.

There is a big double feature at the Orpheum today. Francis Ford and Grace Cunard in a great war drama, in two thrilling acts, "The Doorway of Destruction" is a Bison feature, and beautiful little Rhea Mitchell in the great western photoplay in two gripping acts, "The Valley of Hate" is the other. A Kay Bee feature. Other numbers on the program are an American drama, fascinating with popular Vivian Rich, and entitled "Wife Wanted," a Majestic story, true to life and soul stirring, "The Little Soldier Man" featuring an all star cast, and Charles Chaplin the funniest man in the world, in a corking, rollicking comedy which is sure to pack the house. Monday is a very popular day at the Orpheum, and a big bill, including both Mutual and Universal features, is always shown.

Tomorrow, Robert Warwick, supported by an all star cast of Broadway players, will appear in the master Shubert-Brady production, "The Man Who Found Himself," in five fascinating acts.

Possibly one of the strongest attractions in the musical comedy line opened an engagement at the Odeon theatre this afternoon, and presented a company of first class artists in their respective lines.

The company offers for its opening bill, "Fifty Miles from Nowhere," a bright musical comedy overflowing with the latest song hits of the season and interpolated with

A CHAT WITH JANE GAIL, SCREEN STAR

In a simply but tastefully furnished dressing room at the Imp studios, I met beautiful, talented Jane Gail. She told me of her happiness in returning to the Universal fold once more and how good dear old America was after her long sojourn in London.

"Now that I am with the Big U company again I am very enthusiastic about the big things I shall do in pictures here. We just finished good, clean, bright comedy, handled by such clever comedians as J. Theo. Murphy, late comedian with "The Follies of 1915," Mickey Markward, the past master of tramp comedians; Eddie Harris, the California suggest; Eddie Smalley and Frank Tenney, late stars of the Potash and Perlmutter company. Corinne DeForest, Pearl Reid and Marie Delmar, a trio of versatile musical comedy comedienne, and a chorus of beautiful girls selected from the ranks of the best attractions on the road. The comedy is clean and bright and the musical numbers new and catchy. Special scenery and electrical effects. It is a show all will surely like.

Fred Godding and his "Winter Garden Girls," who opened an engagement this afternoon at the Palace in musical comedy, "The King of Heidelberg," are pronounced by those who saw them to be exceedingly clever and capable. This is a real show by real actors, twelve in number, and the bills, which include condensed revisions of popular operas, will be changed every day. Funny comedians and a chorus of pretty girls who can sing and dance, make up a show that will be hard to beat.

As an added attraction Charles

"The Corsican Brothers," and I know it will be one of the most successful which Mr. Lessey has produced. Yes, I wore many new and beautiful gowns, hats and wraps. Of course, we screen players devote a great deal of time on the details of our wardrobe for we realize how important a part the fashions play and judging from the batch of letters which I receive commenting on my pretty clothes I am more than gratified."

Chaplin, the most popular comedian, will be on the screen today, thus making a very strong program.

For Tuesday, "When Twins Marry," a tabloid of "Geroha-Geroffe," another comic opera that is equally well known as "La Mascotte," will be the musical attraction.

HARRY MYERS and ROSEMARY THEBY in "BABY" Victim Comedy Film

The idea of taking a mere baby for the subject of an entire photoplay would never occur to any one. But to do this and make a rip-roaring successful comedy out of it is the achievement with which Harry Myers is credited. Mr. Myers won his laurels as a popular film actor on his merits as a dramatic actor. No one in the world would imagine even for a single moment that the grave artist in "The Artist and Vengeance," and many other big successes to be the same as the unhappy, crying "daddy" in "Baby."

But "Baby" is so funny that you'll stay again and again when it comes to your theater. In fact, Harry told the "movie critic" that they would throw "Baby" on the screen at the studio every time they could spare the time and they tried to make that often.
